1. The PCI has formed a new body known as the "Commission for Foreign Affairs", whose primary function will be the preparation of a new party line on foreign policy, more favorable to the Marshall Plan. Senator Umberto Terracini has been named the head of the new commission.

2. PCI leaders believe that Terracini is the man best suited to carry out this new party line without compromising the position of Palmiro Togliatti, Pietro Secchia and PCI leaders, who will, however, minimize their overt opposition to the Marshall Plan.
